Level 7 Master's level	40 Credits	12 Modules	78 hrs Live tuition
----------------------------------	----------------------	----------------------	-------------------------------

Evidence-Based Teaching at the Highest Level

The British Teaching Diploma is a prestigious Level 7 qualification — equivalent to a Master's standard programme — designed for in-post teachers in international, British-curriculum and bilingual schools worldwide. Over 12 evidence-based modules and 78 hours of live, expert-led tuition, participants transform how they plan, deliver, assess and reflect on teaching — and graduate with a diploma that is globally recognised and respected. Delivered live via Zoom in small, discussion-rich cohorts — or face-to-face at partner hubs — the BTD has been completed by over 250 teachers across 16+ cohorts in 17 countries, with 84% awarding a five-star rating.

THE 12 MODULES

01 How We Learn	02 Classroom & Behaviour Mgmt	03 Starter / Review
04 Purpose & Planning	05 Input	06 Modelling
07 Guided Practice	08 Checking for Understanding	09 Adaptive Teaching
10 Independent Practice	11 Closure	12 Professional Standards

Awarded jointly by Dragonfly Training and AIM Qualifications and Assessment Group (Ofqual-approved UK awarding body), the diploma carries full international recognition. Price upon request — including all materials, assignment feedback and the formal Level 7 diploma and transcript — with the first month free for new cohorts.

UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH WALES PARTNERSHIP

Completion of the BTD earns 20 academic credits towards the PGCert in Leadership & Management with a focus on Education at the University of South Wales. The PGCert carries 60 credits in total — meaning a THIRD of the full postgraduate qualification is secured simply by passing the BTD.

Formally Accredited Teaching, Grounded in Evidence

The British Teaching Certificate is a Level 6 endorsed qualification — equivalent to the final year of an undergraduate degree — delivered through AIM Awards, an Ofqual-approved UK awarding body. This gives the BTC genuine national credibility and formal recognition that goes well beyond standard CPD provision. Grounded in Cognitive Load Theory (CLT) — the leading evidence-based framework endorsed by the UK's Department for Education — the BTC equips practitioners with a deep, scientifically informed understanding of how students learn, translating that understanding directly into highly effective classroom practice across five carefully sequenced modules.

THE FIVE MODULES

- 1 Understanding Teaching & Learning
CLT, backwards planning, checking for understanding, assessment of learning
- 2 Launching the Learning Session: Input, Modelling and Cooperation
Cooperative learning, direct instruction, input strategies and modelling
- 3 From Guided Practice to Independence: Collaboration, Differentiation and Assessment
Guided practice, adaptive teaching, differentiation and independent study
- 4 Teaching Excellence in Practice: Professional Standards and Lesson Delivery
Professional standards, lesson design and reflective practice
- 5 Teaching in the Digital Age: AI, EdTech and Emerging Tools
Digital tools, AI in assessment, ethical use and future trends

Assessment Approach

Modules 1–4 are assessed through the practical application of a strategy or tool to a real pedagogic challenge in the participant's own classroom, requiring them to identify the issue, justify the strategy selected, and evaluate its impact on learning. The final module requires a multi-stage lesson plan, critical evaluation of professional practice, and personal reflection on how the BTC has shaped their approach and career aspirations.

Why the BTC?

The BTC is the ideal formally accredited qualification for practising teachers who want a rigorous, nationally recognised credential — whether early in their career or returning to structured CPD.

Key Features

- Level 6 — same level as a Bachelor's degree final year
- AIM Awards (Ofqual-approved awarding body)
- Grounded in Cognitive Load Theory — DfE's preferred framework
- Practice-first assessment tied to your own classroom
- Nationally credible mark of professional distinction

Who is it for?

Teachers in UK and international schools at any career stage — particularly those seeking a formally accredited alternative to standard CPD.

A Pathway to the BTd

The BTC is a natural stepping-stone to the British Teaching Diploma (Level 7) — the ideal next qualification for those who wish to progress further towards Master's-level study.

AIM AWARDS ENDORSED

The BTC is endorsed by AIM Awards, the Ofqual-approved awarding body that also endorses the British Teaching Diploma — ensuring consistent quality standards across both qualifications.
